Monday 23rd March 2020

Dear Parents/ Carers,

In light of this evening's announcement by Boris Johnson, I am asking that you listen to his clear advice to stay at home. The advice given to schools by the Vine School's Trust and the Local Authority is that school is closed (from 24th March 2020) with the exception of families where 2 parents are critical workers. Vulnerable families should remain at home and we will do welfare checks via telephone.

Please let us know if both parents are critical workers and it is essential that your child/ren is in school and we will do our best to accommodate this. We will require evidence that both parents are Key Workers.

I apologise if this is short notice but I have to ensure that you, your child and my staff remain safe.

Yours sincerely

Lyndsey Wood
Acting Headteacher
